

EUGENE BUNCH,

The Notorious Train Robber and Murderer Killed.

A Posse Overtakes Him and His Side Partner, Hopgood.

They Were Called Upon to Surrender—Hopgood Complied, But Bunch Refused With a Shot, and the Next Instant Was Riddled With Bullets.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 23.—Eugene Bunch, the notorious train robber and murderer, was killed by a posse at Honey Island, in Pearl river, on the dividing line between Louisiana and Mississippi. The posse, which was composed of Detective Jackson, C. O. Summer, of the Southern Express Co., Dave Martin, John Jackson and Monroe McElveen, left Franklinton, in Washington parish on Bunch's trail.

They came upon him suddenly, and with him was Hopgood, his side partner in most of his nefarious undertakings. The men were called upon to surrender, and Hopgood complied immediately. Bunch's answer was a shot, and the next instant he was riddled with bullets, and fell. He immediately arose and fired two more shots before he expired.

His body was taken to Franklinton last night and Hopgood now languishes in jail at that place. Bunch was one of the most desperate characters in the county. His latest exploit was the killing of Detective Shirling, who attempted to capture him.

In this he was abetted by Hopgood. Detective Jackson is the officer who succeeded in breaking up the Rube Burrows gang. Hopgood, besides being a robber, is also a murderer, having killed a man in Mississippi before he met Bunch.

STRICKEN JAPAN.

Typhoon, Landslide and Earthquake Plays Havoc.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 23.—The Oriental steamer Gaelic brings details of enormous loss of life by a typhoon, landslide and earthquake in Japan. The typhoon raged three days at Tokushima, and the town was flooded.

One hundred and fifty people were drowned, 2,000 houses were swept away, and ten times as many submerged. The government is feeding 25,000 sufferers.

In Akaogi 300 people were drowned and 8,000 dwellings swept away. Landslides on a mountain side in Otomura filled a river and converted a valley into a huge lake. No details have been received, but the people had no warning, and many lives must have been lost.

Near Tokushima a great fissure opened in the earth, at the base of the Hogi mountains, and swallowed 100 houses and 100 people.

Rumbling noises were heard for a day before the disaster. The noises still continue, and the people have fled to the hills. From Okuyama come reports of terribly disastrous floods. Over 5,000 houses were submerged, and 100 persons drowned.

Settling Down at Homestead.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., Aug. 23.—Homestead is daily becoming more deserted, many of the strikers securing work elsewhere pending a settlement of the strike. As a result the relief committee find their work much easier. The soldiers here are looking forward to the 1st of September, when they expect to be relieved. By that time they will have been in continuous service longer than at any time during the history of the guard, having been on the field sixty days.

A Prospective Canonization.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 23.—A letter from Archbishop Ryan has been read in all Roman Catholic churches requiring all Catholics possessing writings of the late John N. Newman, formerly of Philadelphia, to deliver them to the church authorities to be forwarded to Rome, as a precedent to having the late bishop canonized as a saint. The congregation of the Redeemer, of which he was a member, has for several years been collecting evidence of his extraordinary sanctity.

Vessel Speed Trials.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23.—In connection with Naval Constructor Taylor's lectures on speed trials at the naval war college, there will be four trials of vessels over the measured mile course. The vessels tried will be the Philadelphia, the Concord, the Vesuvius and the Cushing. Vessels of entirely different types are taken so as to secure the greatest variety of data. The trials will be conducted with the greatest care.

A Glacier Falls.

LONDON, August 23.—A dispatch to the Times from Lucerne says: The glacier has caused a fall of ice from the glacier in the valley of the Visp, which almost destroyed the village of Tasch near Zermatt. A torrent has destroyed portions of the Viege-Zermatt railway and travelers are now transported by mules. There are various indications of the expansion of the upper snow fields by the heat. Climbers should be warned of extreme danger from avalanches.

Victims of a Mastodon.

CARL JUNCTION, Mo., Aug. 23.—The American mastodon now being exhumed at this place has cost two lives already. Buck Lawrence descended into the shaft out of curiosity in the absence of the regular miners and was overcome by bad air. Tom Wright went down to his assistance, but finding the air too bad, attempted to climb out, only to fall back just as his hands touched the landing board. Lawrence leaves a family.

Pythians in Kansas City.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 23.—The arrival of the Pythian army is progressing. Sunday the knights arrived in divisions. Monday they came in brigades. Everywhere over the city they are to be seen, everywhere were the brilliant colors of the order. An enormous influx of visitors is arriving with the knights.

THE FAIR IS ON.

The Opening Day of the Blue Ribbon Fair of 1892.

This is the opening day of the Blue Ribbon Fair and everything points to a most successful meeting. All day yesterday and last night each train brought numbers of people and this morning many more arrived.

The city is getting pretty well filled up with fair visitors and large crowds are expected for the remainder of the week.

The grounds are all ready after a thorough overhauling. A great deal of work has been done in the way of repairing, whitewashing, &c.

Horses to be shown in the ring and those entered in the racing contests have been arriving for several days and the stables present a lively appearance.

There will be plenty of room, however, for all the stock expected.

Ladies and children will be admitted free to-day, and they will be on hand in force.

The show of mules, saddle mares and draft horses will be excellent. The mule race is also on the program.

There are two good races for this afternoon, the two-year-old pace, and the 2:30 trot. There are eight entries in the first, Little Double, Tom Sherley, Fern Cliff, Albert Hall, Bartender, Keys, Avis and the California wonder, Fausta.

Fourteen are entered in the 2:30 trot, Colonel Neal, Blameless, C. C. Stella, Mahala, Snipnose, Duchess, Erminie, Rosewall, Charley M., Kentucky, Walter, Annette, Green B., and Blackwood Belle. The two-year-old pacing race is another feature.

Beginning to-night pools will be sold on the grounds by electric light each night, commencing at 8:15 o'clock.

The program for to-morrow is also an unusually attractive one. In the arena harness and saddle horses with most liberal premiums offered.

The speed rings embrace the pony race, free for all pace, 2:40 class trot and the Maysville Futurity. In the latter there are eight entries: Notre Dame, Marmaduke, Creel, Maud Heynard, Scotland Lassie, Jennie T., Gertrude V., and Kratz. This will be the greatest race of colts in 1892.

This orchestra is composed of accomplished and capable artists and a rare treat is in store for lovers of music.

The Baby Show.

In making up the program the fair management, by an oversight, neglected to insert the usual baby premium.

There was not the slightest intention that the babies should be left out.

The baby show will be one of the features of Thursday afternoon. The premium will be as follows:

Brickest, prettiest and best white baby 15 months old or under, $10.

Entries can be made to the Manager at Floral Hall.

Giant Weds a Midget.

Extremes met in Bolivar, Mo., the other day when the Texas Giant, Colonel Powell, seven feet eight inches in height, married pretty Henrietta Mority, the midget maiden, who has just reached the altitude of twenty-two inches.

The couple had been the great attraction with a circus showing in that section of the state for several weeks.

It had been evident to the attaches of the show for a long time that the giant was badly smitten with the midget, while she looked up adoringly at him, and doubtless often wondered what the temperature must be up near the top of the center pole.

Finally the swain, whose sighs often formed the canvas as though a hurricane was raging outside, determined to make the lovely and lilliputian Henrietta his own for all time; so quietly taking a clergyman into his confidence the hour was set, and the gallant giant stole his fairy bride from beneath her mother's wing, hid him to the Parson and the words were quickly spoken which made them husband and wife.

Mrs. Mority, Powell's mother-in-law, raised a lively scene when she learned that her daughter had married the giant, and for a time it looked as though Powell would lose his bride and the circus its chief attraction. Finally the manager of the show came to the rescue, painted in glowing words the greater attraction the couple would be as man and wife, raised their salaries and the show went on with Colonel and Mrs. Powell, the Texas Giant and his midget wife, billed in letters twelve inches long.

COUNTY COURT MATTERS.

Items Taken From County Clerk Pearce's Minute Book—August Term.

Judge Phister heard the exceptions to the report of the committee appointed to divide the county into Justices' Districts made by the citizens of the Sardis and Murphysville Precincts, and set aside said report as to the boundaries of Districts No. 4, 5 and 6. It was ordered that the boundaries of these districts be so modified that District No. 4 shall include all of the present precincts of Fern Leaf, Germantown and Murphysville, and District No. 6 shall include all of the present precincts of Sardis and Mayslick and District No. 5 be lessened by taking therefrom that portion of Murphysville Precinct placed therein by the report of the Commissioners.

Thunder Storm, dam Midsummer by War Dance; second dam sister to Pryce No. 3, by Imp. Glencoe. She was the dam of that famous performer Balgown, and other good horses. She leaves a bay colt, sucking, by Strathmore, a yearling chestnut filly by Bulwark, and she had been bred to Prince Royal. She was valued at $15,000.

GETTING RILED,

Our Esteemed Neighbors, the Canadians.

The United States Has Treated Them Badly They Claim.

"Thank God Canada Can Live Without the United States," Says the Toronto Mail.—The Toronto World Says: "We Accept the Penalty"—The Canal.

TORONTO, O., Aug. 23.—Referring to President Harrison's proclamation imposing a toll on vessels passing through the Sault Ste. Marie canal, the Globe (liberal) says: "An attempt to strike this blow at Canadian commerce is warranted neither by the present attitude of our ministers nor by the whole course of international dealing with reference to canal and water ways. Canada's expenditure under this head has been vastly greater than of her neighbor. She has borne far more than her fair share of the cost of completing the noble system of navigation from the northwest to the Atlantic, with the single exception of the rebate, if that be an exception. She has thrown her canals open to Americans and Canadians upon equal terms, while her shippers have enjoyed no benefit whatever from the American state canals. It would be folly to deny that the step which is to be taken will hurt an important Canadian interest, but to make any further concessions in the face of this threat would be too great a sacrifice of our dignity and self-respect."

The Mail (independent) says: "No doubt an intimation from the Ottawa government that next year the rebate would surely go determined the president not to resort to an extreme policy. As it is, the United States meets our toll with a like toll. As the American toll is low and does not come into operation until the first of next month, it will not be a very serious matter, and as it will go off altogether when our rebate ceases, as cease it will at the end of this season, it need not trouble us much. The difficulty in the shape it has assumed is happily not going to lead to reprisals and to ill feeling."

The World (conservative) says: "The president of the United States has, at the order of congress, closed the Sault Ste. Marie canal to Canadian vessels. Our ships must pay a toll of twenty cents a ton. We accept the penalty. While we have to pay it we will. We accept this hostile legislation as the warmest tribute our neighbor rivals can pay us. It is their testimony that Canada is a nation on this American continent. It is the beginning of our history of a great people. Thank God Canada can live without the United States. Thank God, we have proved that more than once and can prove it again. Thank God, national honor is a term still to be found in the
